POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. LOUSER rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE LOUSER

MR. SPEAKER: We often talk about the major high school sports champions at this time of year, but we rarely hear about swimming and diving. On Saturday, the Minot High boys team took home their twenty-ninth state title in the forty-seven year history of the competition in North Dakota. The Magi scored an amazing 433 points, outpacing the second place team, Fargo Davies, with 224 points. Coach Jake Solper led the team to their fourth straight title and the team won seven of the twelve events. Individual or relay state champions included: Dominic Yoder, Alex King, Josh Boen, Peyton Bartsch, Jaxon Reinke and Grant Schaeffer. I'm a bit partial to Grant Schaeffer, my nephew, who broke the school record while winning the 200-meter freestyle. The swimming talents stay within the immediate family as his brother Griffin's relay-team school record, from last season, was also broken on Saturday. As for the extended family, their uncles and cousins always wear life jackets on the pontoon. Congratulations to the Minot High boys swimming and diving team as the magician tradition continues.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. TROTTIER rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE TROTTIER

MR. SPEAKER: As you may be well aware, last week was the North Dakota Class B Girls Basketball Championship. Many of the times when we pay tribute to the winner we forget about the other seven teams. It is a great achievement and honor for all eight teams to represent their home local schools. This year the teams represented the following schools: Grafton, Central Cass, Glenburn, Wilton/Wing, Hettinger/Scranton, Carrington, Langdon/Edmore/Munich, and Kenmare. In the championship game it was a rematch of the two teams, Central Cass and Grafton. In that game Central Cass came away with the victory. Central Cass entered the tournament with only one loss for their season and was rated number one in the state, while Grafton came in with just two losses, and was rated number two in the state. One loss being to Central Cass in the championship game. Grafton came in very strong in the early part of the first quarter, and never really gave up their lead. The game's final score ended at 64-50 in favor of Grafton. Rep. Gary Paur and myself, representing District 19, congratulate the Grafton Spoilers girls basketball team for the state championship.
